

The purpose of Association of Muslim Medical Students (AMMS) is to foster a collaborative environment among aspiring Muslim Osteopathic Physicians and to bridge the appreciation of religion and medicine. Activities partaken in order to meet the mission's objectives include hosting interfaith dialogues, weekly congregations, and outreach programs that help give back to the surrounding communities, medical and beyond. By being proactive in these facets, AMMS helps to enrich the understanding and ideals of a Muslim Physician.