Important Information & Advice to Help you Navigate Orientation Week

ORIENTATION WEB SITE - https://go.rowan.edu/somorientation

Find schedules, handouts, campus info, and club information.

- Visit it often as new items are added through Orientation. The site will remain available for several months.

BE ON TIME!

- Being on time means arriving early. The success of this week depends on you!
- Breaks and “open time” have been built-in for you to take care of other business.

PROGRAM LOCATIONS

- Most programs are held in Multi-Purpose Room of the Academic Center. However, locations throughout the Academic Center and additional spaces in the University Educational Center and Rowan Medicine Building will be used during the week. Please consult the final schedule to confirm the location of each session.

DRESS

- Dress for this week is “comfortable” but “professional”; casual for evening events.
- Remember, you will be meeting members of the faculty and staff as well as fellow students, so is important to make a great first impression.

TRACKS/BREAKOUT GROUPINGS

- Students will be put into different groups during the week using alpha groupings and for one session, divided up by birthday month. These tracked/breakout sessions will occur on Monday afternoon, Tuesday morning, Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday afternoon. Please note that each breakout session has a specific grouping that correlates with the activity or the room capacity of that session. See final orientation schedule for breakdown. It is critically important that you stay within your assigned groups.

BASIC LIFE SUPPORT COURSE/ FAQs

- Can I still sign-up? Registration will remain open until the sessions are full. Register at: https://rowan.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_6rRvLEVKUpHwVvl
- Is the Basic Life Support Course mandatory? No, but it is highly recommended as the BLS certification may be required to participate in non-credit clinical experiences at health centers and hospitals.
- If I signed up for the BLS program on-line, but now cannot attend or need to change my session, whom do I need to notify? Please e-mail Dean Micciche at miccicda@rowan.edu.

STUDENT I.D. NUMBER

- Know your university ID number. It is required for registration, i.d. card app., student health, etc.
