AMERICAN COLLEGE OF OSTEOPATHIC
FAMILY PHYSICIANS

Student Association of American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians

(SAACFP), is a national, student-run organization for students interested in learning more about family medicine! We are the student association of a national, umbrella organization, the American College of Osteopathic Family Physicians. Our organization plans and runs events to volunteer in the community, to network with family physicians, and to expand students' understanding of the possibilities within the field of family medicine (including scope of practice, lifestyle, and fellowship opportunities).

Membership is FREE to all osteopathic medical students. As a member, you may become eligible for additional scholarship opportunities and national board positions within the organization (as well as executive board positions here at Rowan SOM!). You can also receive discounts to board exam study materials and much more!!!!

4 Year FREE Membership!!!

Access to:

- OMT Video Library
