

Student Osteopathic Surgical Association

The Student Osteopathic Surgical Association (SOSA) is a national organization for osteopathic students interested in the surgical specialties. Members are educated in the field of surgery, including gowning and gloving, scrubbing, sterile technique, suturing and tying techniques, operating room behavior, instrumentation, universal precautions, osteopathic manipulative management of the surgical patient, pre and post-operative management of surgical patients, and surgical documentation; and providing a forum for discussion amongst students and surgeons

Membership Benefits and Events:

- 4 Year National & Rowan-SOM SOSA Membership
- FREE Practice Suturing Kit
- FREE Admission to all SOSA Events
 - Suturing & Surgical Knot Tying Lessons
 - Laparoscopic Surgery Simulator
 - Surgeon's Panel & Case Presentations
 - Research Opportunities with Rowan-SOM Surgery Residents
- SOSA Convention (Fall 2019)
- Philadelphia Surgery Symposium
- Operating Room Shadowing
- Rowan-SOM Surgery Residency Information
- Two First Year SOSA Representative Executive Board Positions Reserved Specifically for the 2023 class:

Cost: One time fee $75 – for all 4 years

Contact us with any questions at: sosarowansom@gmail.com

President: Pankti Acharya

Vice President: Jake Hanna

Secretary: Carly Earle

Treasurer: George Souflis

Community Service Chair: Jonathan Huang

2nd Year Representatives: Joshua Spada and Shayna Peterzell

